NEW ENGLISH BRONZE FINISH ADDS RUSTIC WARMTH AND CHARACTER TO ROHL'S PERRIN & ROWE COLLECTION

U.3720L Wears the New English Bronze Finish Well

Homeowners seeking to recapture a bygone era will immediately fall in love with English Bronze, a rustic finish debuting on ROHL's entire Edwardian-influenced Perrin & Rowe line of faucets, components and accessories for the kitchen, bath and shower.

Infused with rich, warm, dark brown tones, the English Bronze finish is specifically manufactured to have a patina appearance, adding a sense of character and history to a room. The subtly textured finish on such exquisite faucetry creates the perfect centerpiece to traditional or country kitchen and bath motifs.

This permanent finish, not a living finish, is warm and inviting to the touch. It features no synthetic coatings and carries a full Limited Lifetime warranty. Care for the English Bronze finish is easy. Simply wipe down after use and periodically clean with mild liquid soap. To avoid spotting, Flitz Faucet Wax is suggested.

The Perrin & Rowe Collection, presented exclusively by ROHL, is one of the finest series of coordinated faucets and fittings for the bath, shower and kitchen. These classically styled products complement both traditional and contemporary settings, adding value and delivering uncompromising performance. Elegantly designed and meticulously crafted in the
