ZEPHYR SPOUT TRAVELS BACK TO DAWN OF AMERICAN MODERN ERA IN ROHL'S MICHAEL BERMAN BATH COLLECTION

High style and elegance from the 1920s, 30s and 40s lives again in the Zephyr Spout, part of ROHL's new Michael Berman Bath Collection. Defined by its retro streamline styling and unusual peak shape, it reflects some of the greatest design work of the period – from the pronounced bow of luxury ocean liners such as the Normandy to the striking aerodynamic form of the Burlington Zephyr locomotive.

It's an original shape that bridges a century of design inspiration in America. Perfect for traditional or modern environments, the spout's trademark trans-modern styling is articulated in a distinctive concept that brings the experience of authentic luxury to the everyday rituals of bathing.

The Zephyr Spout is available in an array of options for the bath, including deck-mount and wall-mount lavatory faucets and tub fillers, thermostatic and pressure balance shower systems with oversized showerheads, bodysprays and handshowers. Coordinated towel bars, towel rings, toilet paper holders and robe hooks complete this designer bath collection.
